THE YEARBOOK AT FLORIDA SOUTHERN COLLEGE
LAKELAND, FLORIDA
VOLUME 51

*A trait of excellence is the ability to withstand the test of time.
The ability to endure, overcoming the failures and treasuring the successes. From its beginning one hundred years ago, Florida Southern College has passed the test of time in reaching the level of academic excellence that it knows today.*

Orange Grove Campus

OVERLOOKING LAKE HOLLINGSWORTH

It all began as Florida Conference College in Leesburg but was forced to close after nine years due to an economic depression caused by a big freeze. Seven years later it was relocated in Sutherland as Florida Seminary. While at Sutherland, its name was changed to Southern College. During the next few years, the college endured difficult times with financial problems, a damaging tropical storm and an influenza epidemic. But the devastating blow came in 1921 when a raging fire completely destroyed the dormitory for women and the administration building. Temporary facilities were erected on Clearwater Beach Island until 1922 when Lakeland was chosen over Tampa, St. Petersburg, Jacksonville, and Ft. Pierce as the next home for the college.

Perhaps the turning point of the college was the result of the ingenuity of two men, Dr. Ludd Myrl Spivey, the president of the college, and Frank Lloyd Wright, renowned American architect. Dr. Spivey traveled to Wright's Taliesin home in Wisconsin to ask him to design the campus. Dr. Spivey went to him with no money or with no immediate plans to obtain any. Wright was impressed with Dr. Spivey's enthusiasm and within a year plans were made for the entire west end of the campus. The original plan called for eighteen buildings but only ten were constructed, each with the assistance of students. Wright described his architecture as "every building is out of the ground and into the light, a child of the sun." Wright's work brought national and international fame to the campus and provided a new beginning for Florida Southern College. Wright's first building, the Annie Pfeiffer Chapel, served as a cornerstone for the new campus and today, it remains a symbol of identification for the college.

Another change for the college came in the late thirties with the changing of the school colors from blue and white to red and white. Dr. Spivey had traveled to Russia where bright red flags flew across the land. Dr. Spivey sensed that the red flags were a factor in the people's high morale and attitude. He saw the dark blue and white colors as adding no real life to the college and upon his return, he changed the colors to red and white which remain the college colors today.

By 1960, the campus consisted of seventy-eight buildings and covered over 100 acres with an enrollment of nearly three thousand students. Throughout the next few years the campus expanded with the addition of an auditorium, a gymnasium, a library and a humanities building. This expansion continues today with the newly completed Rogers Building, a new home for the business and economics departments.

Did you know . . .

The campus walk of honor was established in 1931 to recognize one outstanding student of the graduating class.

At the close of the war in 1946 the men outnumbered the women for the first time on campus.

At beach parties girls couldn't swim with boys.

Saturday nights were the only night dates were allowed — always well chaperoned.

Classes were sex segregated. Boys sat in the back of the room and girls in the front.

In 1926 our own quarterback five feet, 110 pound was the lightest college player in the sport.

In 1913 we were the only team in the state that would play University of Florida. We lost 144-0.

Sororities and fraternities did not exist until 1925, instead there were literary clubs.

All literature read by the students had to be screened by the President.

Every morning the dorm rooms were checked for cleanliness. If you received too many black marks you had to stay in for the weekend.

The combination of efficient facilities, respected administration and faculty, a good curriculum, a proven athletic department and a wide range of students make Florida Southern what it is today — one hundred years later. Thanks to people who are persistent and did not give up in the beginning, Florida Southern has successfully endured the test of time — the test of a centennial. And though today we celebrate one hundred years of academic excellence, it is yet the beginning. For in order to continue to endure we must begin to face another test, another test of time — another hundred years.

The leadership of Florida Southern, both past and present, is exemplified by the photographs on the opposite page. In color is Robert A. Davis, today's president. In the insert is Josua Hollingsworth, the first president of the College.

... The Greatest Architect of Our Times

The largest concentration of Frank Lloyd Wright architecture in the world is found on the campus of Florida Southern College. In a setting of citrus, sand and sunshine, his creations rise out of the earth into the blue of a tropical sky and the union of his architecture is a complex which will delight visitors to our College even a thousand years into the future.

Florida Southern College is proud, indeed, that the name of Frank Lloyd Wright is indelibly stamped for centuries to come on the pages of its history, and The Interlachen of 1955 presents these pictorial studies of the greatest architect of our times on that campus. Faculty and friends may have a treasured remembrance of a great American.

Dr. Wright looks out over the campus from campus.

At Foundation, Work in 1910. Dr. Wright is shown, left after receiving an honorary doctor of laws degree from President Lull of Senate. The dean of American architects has made many visits to our campus to see at first hand the buildings which he has created.

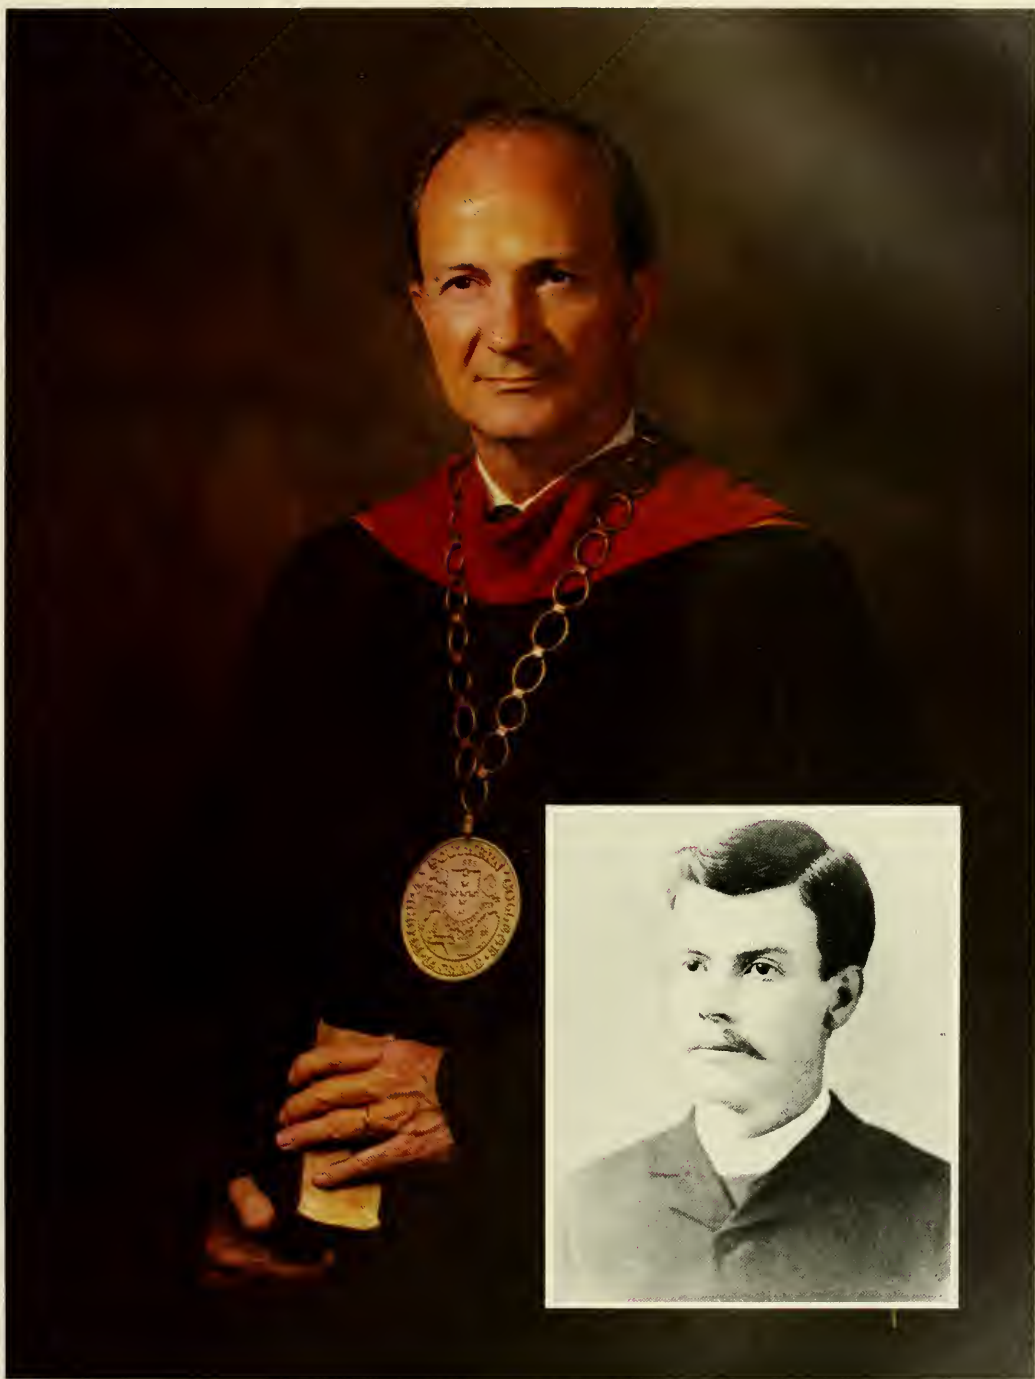

Dr. Wright is seated at the reading table at 1910.

STUDENT LIFE '85

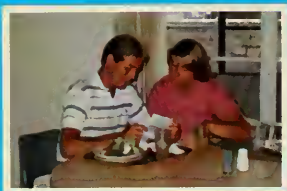

Sailing on Lake Hollingsworth is a relaxing way to spend the afternoon.

...I'll welcome back Evelyn Connors at the Centennial

Student life at Florida Southern College allows the student to pursue those things which he or she as an individual values as important, and also allows time to be with friends.

A popular activity is to soak up some sun on the dock.

A second opinion on something is always better.

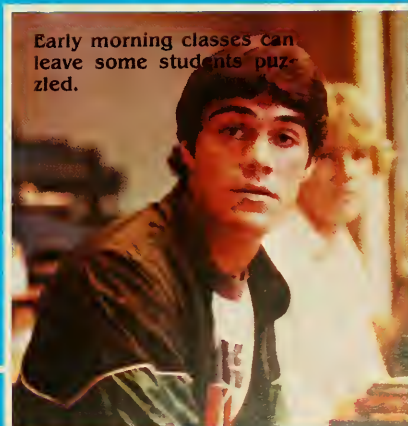

Students gathered to witness the dedication of the Rogers Building which represents a growing Southern.

Some of the best times are the times spent with friends.

Early morning classes can leave some students puzzled.

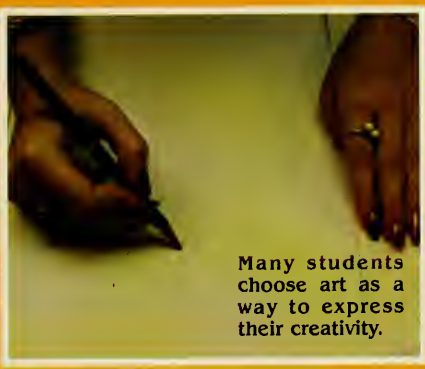

The stage is set for students to discover their theatrical abilities.

The beauty and serenity of the Hindu Gardens often captivates students.

Student life is an outlet for creativity, enabling us to learn more about ourselves and others. Those who dare to expand their mind and follow the possibilities of personal growth are those students who will fulfill their goals.

Many students choose art as a way to express their creativity.

The tranquility of the setting sun allows time for quiet reflection.

Classes offer students a chance to be creative.

This year was especially interesting for horticulture majors with the outbreak of citrus canker.

Sports activities provide students with relaxing leisure time.

A great escape can mean a road trip to Clearwater beach.

One of Florida Southern's finer qualities is its aesthetic beauty.

Friendships made are important to each individual.

Student life reveals and teaches that there are many realms in a college atmosphere. Students quickly learn what is needed to adjust to a new way of life.

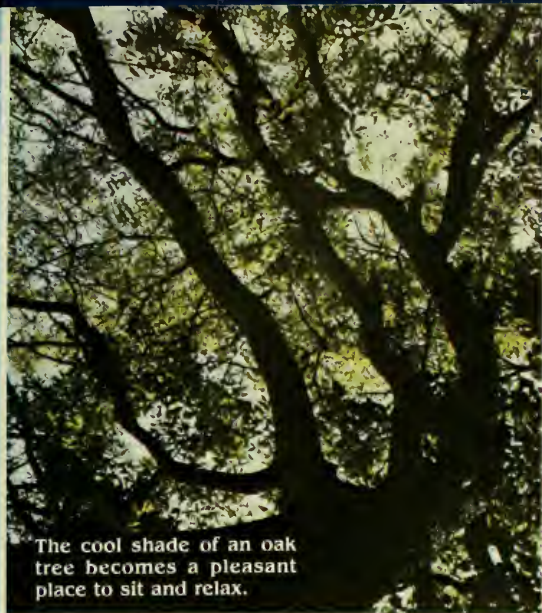

The quiet place of college often finds a student's note.

Parents lend a helping hand when moving in.

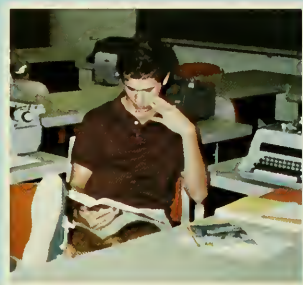

The CT is a popular place to take a break from studying.

The cool shade of an oak tree becomes a pleasant place to sit and relax.

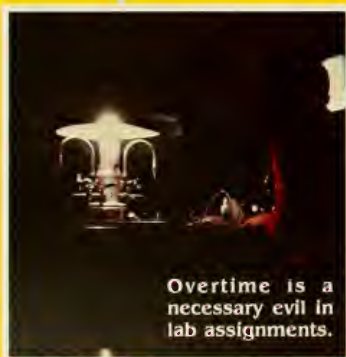

The focus on religion is influential on campus.

Orientation, a time when parents and students explore what college entails.

Helping friends is a significant enjoyable part of dorm life.

Overtime is a necessary evil in lab assignments.

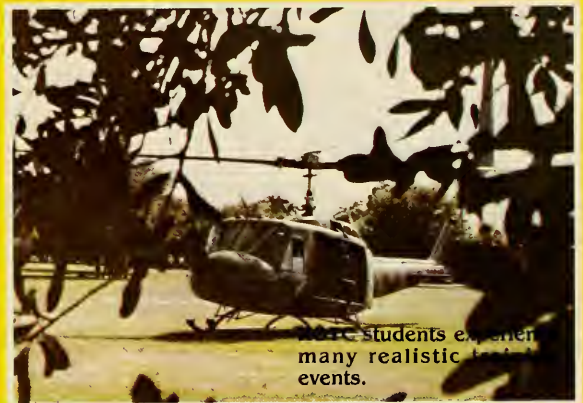

Many students who walk or jog around Lake Hollingsworth enjoy the colors of an evening sunset.

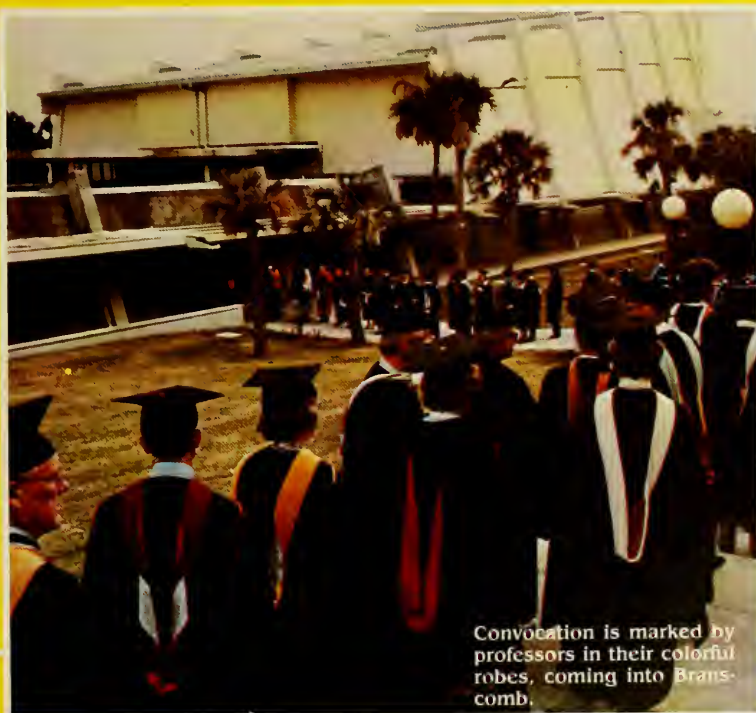

Competition is a reward in

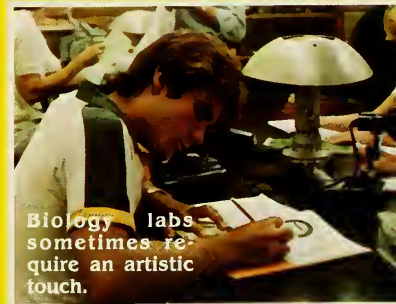

The key to successful student life is entering into it with an attitude of learning. You are the student and the experience or challenge is the teacher.

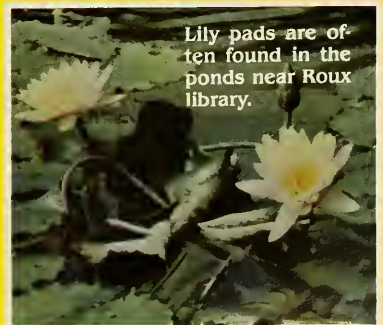

Some students experience many realistic test events.

Convocation is marked by professors in their colorful robes, coming into Branscomb.

Biology labs sometimes require an artistic touch.

Lily pads are often found in the ponds near Roux library.

Ruins of churches and castles are familiar sights that enhance the rustic countryside of Europe.

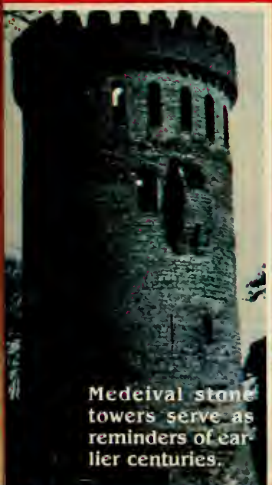

With cameras in hand, students explored many of the famous cathedrals in Europe.

There's a classroom outside of Florida Southern, that offers the student an opportunity to absorb knowledge through experiences in travelling. May Option enables the student to study and explore foreign countries in ways that will enlighten their perspective of the world around them.

London sights in London, England and the House of Parliament, both of which overlook the river Seine.

Outside of Europe, Mexico is a popular choice for May Option students. Here the warm, sunny weather and local markets offer many diversions from studies.

Medieval stone towers serve as reminders of earlier centuries.

Going to the beach is probably the most common pastime of FSC students.

Some people will even stop what they are doing to listen.

Completion of a project sometimes requires a little assistance.

Relaxation can be found in conversation with a friend.

Palm trees and other lush foliage abound all over the campus.

College life is a melting pot of ideas brought together by communication. It is necessary to listen to each other in gaining knowledge as well as it is important in formulating your own ideas.

Dedication

Dr. David G. Mobberley

His door is always open to students, and he is always ready to listen to their problems and successes. Since 1977, he has shown dedication to the college by strengthening and creating programs which opened the college to the community and to the world. His devotion is apparent in his constant striving for perfection in preparation and presentation. Many long hours of work with and for the students may sometimes go unnoticed. For this reason the 1985 INTERLACHEN is gratefully dedicated to Dr. David G. Mobberley.

With sincere appreciation

1985 Honor Walk Student

The Honor Walk award is the highest award given by Florida Southern College. Each year the Honor Walk recipient is chosen on the basis of academic record, campus leadership, and contribution to the campus community. For attaining the highest achievement in these areas, Darice Fields has been chosen 1985 Honor Walk Student.

Darice Fields is a well rounded, level-headed, one of a kind person. Her involvement on campus stems from her sincere interest in others. She has been involved in several organizations and has received well deserved awards.

Her extra-curricular activities include the AWS, Kappa Delta Sorority, Omicron Delta Kappa — president, Kappa Mu Epsilon, Kappa Delta Pi, the Jazz Band and Concert Band. She has also worked as a math assistant and a junior advisor.

Her honors include being elected into Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities for two consecutive years, being a President's scholar for three consecutive years, being nominated as a Miss Southern candidate and most recently receiving a Rotary International Scholarship to Ireland.

Although Darice's achievements have been many, to those who know her well, her most valuable achievement is that of being a true friend.

Darice Fields

Miss Southern 1985

The Miss Southern contest is a competition based on both beauty and campus involvement. Contestants are nominated by various organizations and then one is selected by a vote by the entire student body.

Congratulations to Susan Young, 1985 Miss Southern.

James C. Rogers, Jr. Award 1985

This award developed by Carlile Rogers, a past chairman of the board of trustees, is in memory of his son James C. Rogers, a 1969 alum of Florida Southern. James Rogers was a budding young attorney in Washington D.C. when he was killed in the summer of 1981.

As Miss Southern, the James C. Rogers contest is based on academics, and campus involvement. Congratulations to Joe Baker, recipient of the James C. Rogers Award.

Miss Interlachen

Since Florida Southern's founding, the Interlachen has recognized the campus' most beautiful girls. In 1936, the Interlachen staff felt incompetent of making this selection. So for the first time they submitted photos to an outside celebrity. The various celebrity judges over the years include Perry Como, Lorne Greene, Pat Boone, John Davidson, Red Skelton, Andy Griffith, Steve McQueen, Senator Lawton Chiles, Johnny Bench, Bob Griese, Tom Hallick, Eddie Albert, Anita Bryant, and Lee Meriwether among others.

Miss Interlachen contestants are sponsored by campus organizations. Finalists are selected by their performance in a fashion show and then their photos are sent to the judge.

Honorary Chancellor

Dr. Terrel H. Bell, who served as Secretary of Education on President Ronald Reagan's Cabinet, has been named the 1985 Honorary Chancellor at Florida Southern College.

Until December Dr. Bell served as Secretary of the Department of Education in Washington where he provided creative leadership to the nation's education enterprise. For four years he was the leading spokesman for American higher education in the halls of government in Washington. Under his leadership the National Commission on Excellence in Education was established which resulted in the publication of the document 'A Nation At Risk.' This has led to many reforms and innovations in American education which are expected to result in greater academic excellence.

Dr. Bell has been awarded eleven honorary doctorates, three special citations from three different HEW Secretaries, the Distinguished Service award from the Council of Chief State School officers, and several other recognitions. We are honored that Dr. Bell, as Honorary Chancellor, will be a part of a tradition which began here at Florida Southern in 1934.

Greek Hall of Fame

Greek Hall of Fame was introduced in 1956 to give recognition to those fraternity men and sorority women who have been outstanding in campus activities. All candidates are seniors, nominated by their fraternal organization.

Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities

Each year several students are awarded membership in "Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities." These students are selected on the basis of academic excellence, campus involvement, and leadership qualities. Their names and honors are published in a book along with other students nationwide. It's an honor to be proud of.

Student publications include the Interlachen and The Southern, all interested students are eligible to seek staff positions. Production of the '85 Interlachen began with the selection of the editor, Lauren Rodberg, last February. The staff of 10 students and faculty advisors, Dr. English and Professor Waters worked to report the year in the permanent form of a yearbook. Being the centennial year the staff spent many long hours developing a special edition.

Our campus newspaper, founded in 1886, The Southern provides prospective journalism students with the basics and background that will be needed in the newspaper field. This year's editor, Kim Scott, worked with media writing and editing classes as well as Professor Waters regarding the content and style of The Southern.

The Student Government Association and Student Union Board represents the student body in matters involving college administration, faculty, and the student body itself. SGA consists of student senate, AWS, AMS and all full time students who serve as voting members of the association. Some of their many activities include a leadership conference, Miss Southern elections and representing students in campus affairs.

The SUB serves our students by providing extracurricular activities on campus.

The Association of Women Students was formed in 1969 and has been in continuous existence since that time, with participation by boarding and day students alike. AWS helps to involve women on campus in school and community activities. AWS sponsors a variety of events each semester including fashion shows, educational speakers, the House Mothers

Tea and the Miss Molly advisor program.

The newly organized Association of Men Students, formerly Mens Student Government, is the elected body of students formed to represent the FSC male population. AMS is primarily concerned with the improvement of mens lobbies, student parking and the intramural program.

The Panhellenic Council and Interfraternity Council are comprised of two representatives from each of the fraternities and sororities. Although each Greek organization is different, together they share common aims, standards and interests. Through the councils, good scholarship, friendship and co-operation is promoted.

Junior advisors were first chosen in 1962. A Junior Advisor has the responsibility of introducing freshmen and transfer students to the ideals and purposes of Florida Southern College. To be selected as a J.A. one must maintain a minimum grade point average of 2.6 and exemplify characteristics of understanding, compassion, leadership, stability, dependability and patience.

Resident Advisors, first chosen in 1963, must exemplify qualities of leadership, responsibility, authority, and understanding. Acting as a liaison between students and Administration, RA's keep the male student body informed of all school events and important information.

Omicron Delta Kappa is a national leadership honorary organization which includes students and faculty. A minimum of a 3.0 Junior or Senior standing, and eight leadership points are required to be tapped into the circle. Activities include faculty evaluations, hosting campus visitors and holding leadership conferences.

The newest academic honorary at FSC, Phi Eta Sigma, is the national College Scholastic Honor Society for freshmen. Its main goal is to encourage and reward high scholastic attainment among freshmen in institutions of higher learning.

The concert band, under the direction of James Stutz, is a unique organization of young men and women from all walks of life with one common interest: music. Each year the concert band performs a wide variety of music on campus and also takes an annual tour. The members of the band take pride in performing at their highest degree of proficiency.

The Dixieland Band, also under the direction of James Stutz, is a satellite group of the concert band. The Dixieland Band has proven to be one of the most popular performing groups within the music department at Florida Southern. The Band performs at schools, churches, and other philanthropic organizations around the state during the school year as well as in conjunction with the concert band on their annual tour.

The Women's and Men's Intramural Association has been a part of Florida Southern College life since 1936. The main purpose is to provide students who are not varsity athletes with a chance to compete in various sports. To keep everyone informed representatives are chosen from each participating organization. Information of game, time and place is passed along through these individuals. The many different sports include basketball, football, volleyball, softball, soccer, cross country, and canoeing, to name a few.

Concert Chorale, composed of many talented voices, is the largest group of singers on campus. Each year the Chorale performs at many concerts as well as an annual tour. Two of the most noteworthy performances are the Christmas Gala and the Spring Concert.

In existence since the Spring of 1969, the Handbell Choir has traveled and shared their talents through their music. Under the direction of Linda Cox, the group tours to various Methodist Churches in Florida and performs here at Florida Southern College. The Handbell Choir, not limited to music majors, is for anyone interested in music.

Delta Omicron is an International music fraternity for women. It was founded in 1909 and first came to FSC in February of 1971. This year marks the 75th National anniversary of Delta Omicron. One must be majoring or minoring in music with a 3.0 music average and a 2.0 academic average to become a member. Their open motto is "Continually striving, we attain."

The Theta Sigma Chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia began at FSC in 1959. Phi Mu Alpha is a professional music fraternity for men. Each member must perform in one of the college music ensembles to be eligible for membership. In the spring, Phi Mu Alpha sponsors and performs "American Music Concert" which displays American composers.

Alpha Psi Omega is the dramatic honorary whose members have displayed theatrical ability and dedication. Members must have performed in various roles, worked in several backstage positions, and taken a designated number of theater courses. This year, FSC's Delta Nu Chapter became established in the department and in the production of shows. The members hope to have a strong, positive influence on the number of student, non-seasonal productions performed each year.

The Vagabonds is the oldest organization on campus. The organization was named in 1924 in Leesburg. The Vagabonds perform four shows as part of The Fine Arts Series of Lakeland. Productions include set and costume construction, light and sound execution, and at times, directing and designing.

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes was first established on campus in 1980. The primary purpose lies in the challenge and adventure of living the Christian life. Although the organization is mostly made up of athletes, all are invited to join who have an interest in sports and Christian Fellowship.

All Campus Fellowship is a non-denominational organization that offers fellowship and mutual learning to students through small group meetings.

Wesley Fellowship is a group of students whose purpose is to "support one another in Christian love." Each year, Wesley sponsors retreats, projects to fight world hunger, special speakers, and informative programs. Through these and other activities, Wesley Fellowship grows as a caring group, both inwardly and outwardly.

Baptist Campus Ministry is a campus organization bringing together young people to learn more about the word of God.

Some activities include retreats at Lake Yale and canoe trips. Their main goal this year is to earn money for Baptist Missionary work.

The Newman Club is the Catholic Campus Ministry service here at Florida Southern. It is a national club with houses on many college and university campuses. The Newman Club first began here at Florida Southern in 1967.

Sigma Rho Epsilon began as a fraternity organized for those with a genuine interest in Religious Education. In its beginning, the organization was composed of women interested in Religious Education, majoring or minoring in it. Men became members with positive results and it no longer was an honorary fraternity. Sigma Rho Epsilon opened the doors to all who were interested in Christian Service on campus and in the community. Also, it cooperates with all other campus groups for the promotion of the common good.

The Collegiate Financial Entrepreneurs is a group designed to promote entrepreneurial activities and to provide hands on experience for its members in various business activities. Its goals are to start its own non-profit business venture and become active in the stock market. They hope to provide experience that would not normally accompany the college education.

Founded by the students and faculty of Florida Southern in the spring of 1984, International Management Club gives the students an opportunity to get a first hand look at the International Business World. Speeches and seminars help give the members a better understanding of the field. Membership is open to anyone interested in the field of International Management.

The American Society for Personnel Administration has an active chapter on campus. The faculty advisor this year is Mr. Wiepking, who helps provide experiences for the members through speakers, field trips, and inspiring discussions.

Toastmasters International, established here on campus in the spring of 1983, provides instruction in communication skills. Through Collegiate Toastmasters, students and faculty alike learn how to speak effectively and confidently. Toastmasters is a professional organization which inspires members to be better communicators.

The Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity was founded in 1909 at Boston University by Warren A. Cole. In the last 75 years, Lambda Chi Alpha has grown from its original chapter to more than 220 chapters in the U.S. and Canada. Although the youngest of the top twenty fraternities in the nation, Lambda Chi is the third largest fraternal brotherhood with the second largest number of chapters. Florida Southern's Epsilon Xi Zeta is the oldest fraternity on campus, originally chartered in 1938.

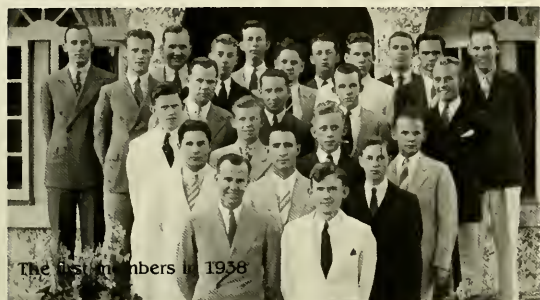

The Lambda Chi's have a strong national policy against hazing, one which is boldly upheld by Epsilon Xi.

This centennial year at Florida Southern marks Lambda Chi Alpha's 75th anniversary — a Diamond Celebration of belief in ideals, progressiveness, and BROTHERHOOD!!

Founded in 1885, the Sigma Chi fraternity is celebrating its 100th year nationally. Sigma Chi is well recognized in the Greek world today. Likewise, the Epsilon Sigma chapter chartered in 1959 maintains a similar stature here at FSC, following the ideas represented in the white cross, a symbol of our fraternity. Through it all, Sigma Chi remains a privilege, a foundation for the future, and an eternal friendship. Sigma Chi is what others strive to be — an organization that knows no age.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

Sigma Phi Epsilon was established on November 1, 1901 at Richmond College. Our own Florida Delta chapter was chartered at Florida Southern on May 28, 1949. Founded on the principles of virtue, diligence, and brotherly love; Sig Ep has grown from a group of twelve determined young men to the second largest national fraternity. Likewise, the Florida Delta chapter, using these same principles, has doubled in membership in the past year.

The Sig Ep's philanthropy is the American Heart Association, and they raise money by sponsoring a Swim for Heart.

Tau Kappa Epsilon is the largest social fraternity in the world with over 300 active chapters. Beta Tau chapter was founded at Florida Southern in 1947. Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity is based on the belief that the three essential elements of meaningful fraternal relations are love, charity, and esteem. The colors of TKE are cherry red and grey and the mythological ideal is Apollo. Famous alumni include: Terry Bradshaw, The Everly Brothers, Merv Griffin, Elvis Presley, President Reagan, Danny Thomas, Charles Walgreen, and Lawrence Welk. The TKE brothers will always remember our sweetheart, Amy Morgan, and Mom Chisolm for their love and support. No other Division II program in the nation can match the success of the Moccasins in baseball. The Mocs are a member of the Sunshine State Conference and have won the conference championship six times.

The team plays a full schedule in the fall in addition to their regular season spring slate of more than 50 games against some of the nation's top teams.

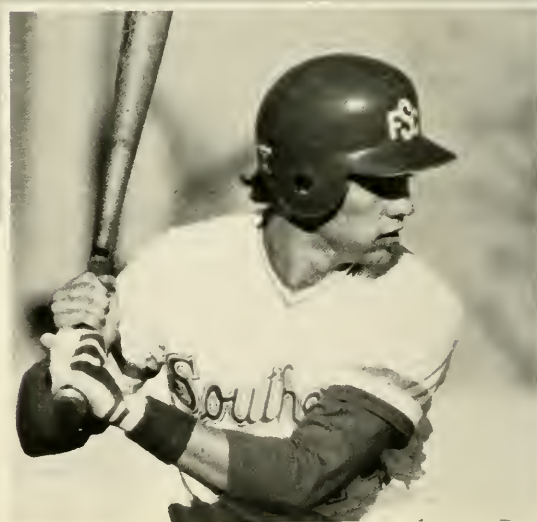

The Mocs are under the guidance of head coach Chuck Anderson who has been at Florida Southern for over twenty-five years.

An exciting, fast-paced brand of college basketball against some of the nation's top teams is what Florida Southern fans have come to expect in recent years. The Mocs annually play a highly competitive Division II schedule which regularly includes a number of Division I opponents as well.

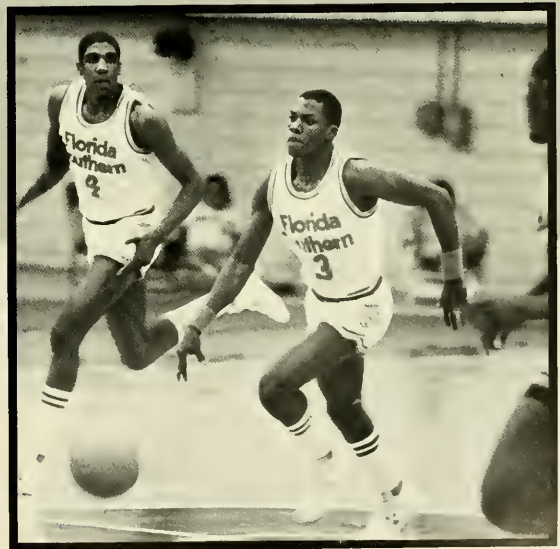

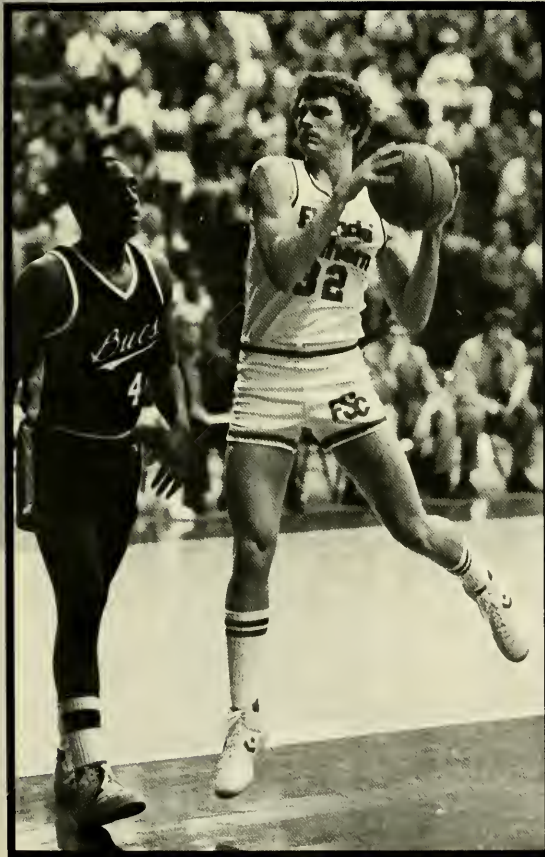

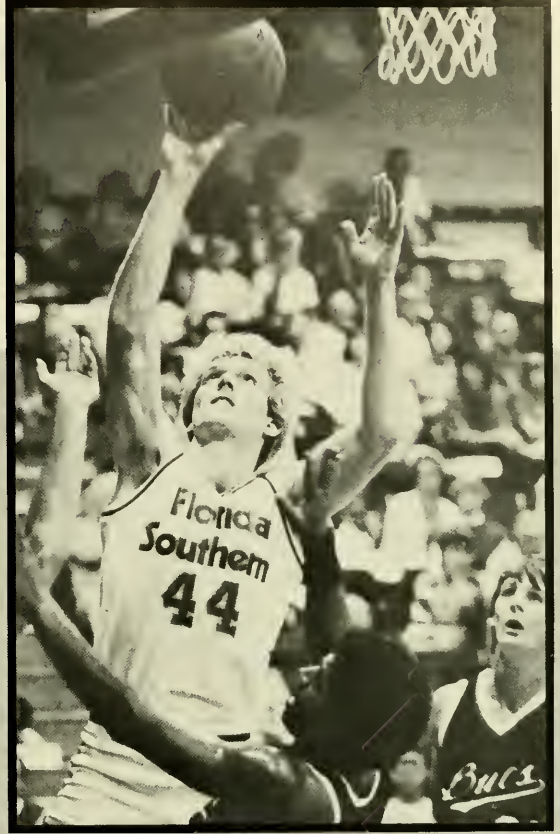

The tough schedule pays off as Florida Southern has made six NCAA post-season appearances, winning three regional titles for three consecutive trips to the NCAA Final Four.

The team is piloted by head coach, George Scholz, a 1974 graduate of Jacksonville University.

Since its start in 1977, the women's program has provided fans with many exciting, action packed games. Playing against some of the top Division II powers in the South, the Lady Moccasins have hosted many Division I teams as well.

Florida Southern captured the first Sunshine State Conference championship in 1982 and has finished as conference runner-up the past two seasons. Competing in the AIAW, Florida Southern made six straight state tournament appearances.

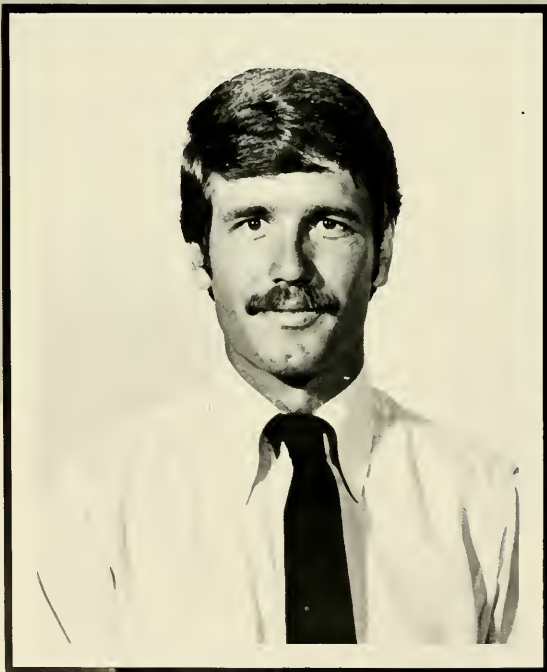

Beginning his third year as head coach is Dick Goding, a 1970 graduate of Florida Southern.

Since its beginning in 1977, the Lady Moccasin volleyball team has risen to a level of national recognition. Playing a full schedule in the fall that takes the team throughout the state and on to tournaments outside Florida, the Lady Mocs have reached a goal that is obvious in their performance.

Under the guidance of Lois Webb, a 1971 graduate of Florida State University, the Lady Mocs play a California-style of hard-hitting, fast-paced, exciting volleyball.

GOLF

Head Coach, Charley Matlock

Competing year round, the Mocs are familiar participants in some of the nation's most prestigious tournaments, playing against the finest opposition in collegiate golf. The Mocs have handled the pressure of the NCAA Championships, winning back-to-back titles in 1981 and 1982 becoming only the fifth team in Division II history to accomplish that feat.

The success of the program reflects on as much individual performance as team performance with the driving force of head coach Charley Matlock.

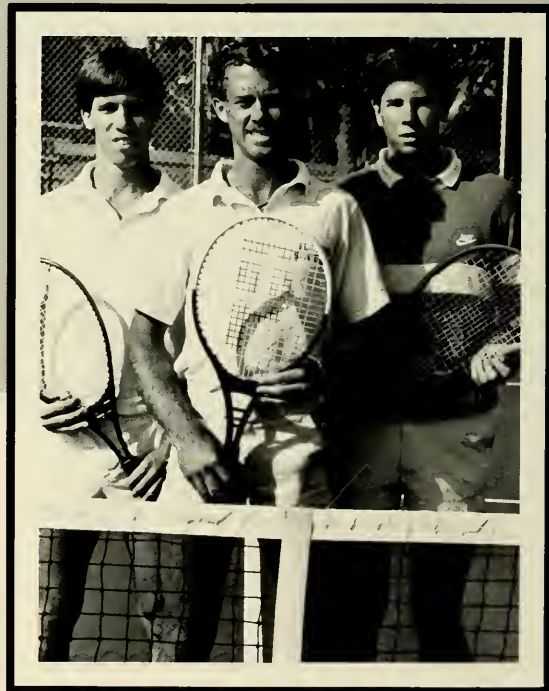

MEN'S TENNIS

Head Coach, Ed Plowman

Added in 1979 because of its popularity and practicality, cross country provides an opportunity for a young athlete to represent his college in one-on-one and team competition. Meets are scheduled during the early fall against four-year colleges, junior colleges, and track clubs throughout Florida.

Coaching both the men's and women's team is Dr. Ed Plowman, a 1967 graduate of North Carolina State University. Dr. Plowman is a regular participant in marathon races and has run the Boston Marathon a number of times.

The Florida Southern Water Ski Team has always upheld a great winning tradition. In the fall and the spring the Mocs travel the state of Florida showing southern dominance. The team has qualified to go to the national championships for the past five years. This year they made their way to a fourth overall finish at the Intercollegiate National Championships in Sacramento, California. Leading the team to outstanding performance is coach, Rick Anderson, a senior here at FSC.

INTRAMURALS

To some degree Southern's sports affect us all, whether it be as a varsity player, a participant in intramurals, a week-end racquetball player, or simply as a spectator. Florida Southern fields a number of intramural teams, with each dorm, fraternity, and sorority participating. The intramural schedule includes such sports as flag football, softball, soccer, basketball, volleyball, archery, canoeing, and tennis.

RESERVE OFFICER TRAINING CORPS

RESERVE OFFICER TRAINING CORPS

The United States Government maintains a Senior Division of the Army Reserve Officer's Training Corps at Florida Southern College. The general objective of the Army ROTC curriculum is to produce junior officers possessing qualities and attributes essential to their progressive and continued development in the Regular Army and in the United States Army Reserve.

It will provide the student with an appreciation of the responsibilities of each American as a citizen, to contribute time, talent, and energies to be the protection of liberty and an appreciation of the need for trained leadership in the military defense organization of the United States of America.

ROTC extracurricular activities include the Raider Program, Color Guard and Running Club. ROTC cadets participated in field training exercises to Camp Blanding, Helicopter orientation, Rappelling, the Lakeland Christmas Parade, and the Gasparilla Classic.

KAPPA ALPHA

The graduating seniors, of eighty five never a dull moment, they were always alive those were the boys, from eighty one they left their mark, with the things they've done Joe Prez spent two years, caring for a rat remember when Chiz, lost all his fat? did Kirk like short people, or was that a myth and Ziggy made famous, "love the one you're with" how 'bout that Dog, on his island spree Doc lost his vision and didn't see the tree Westcott was blown off, more times than not The "C" was in fashion, with the clothes he bought just picked the rose bud, but where did they go and how old is Barry, does anyone know when time came to be happy, there was no doubt most joined in, but Keeb wouldn't go out new officers, the brothers, lil sisters, MDA football champs, bake and steak, what more can we say busted parties, and buck are the final addition of the long list of memories, of the KA tradition.

CLOSING 1985

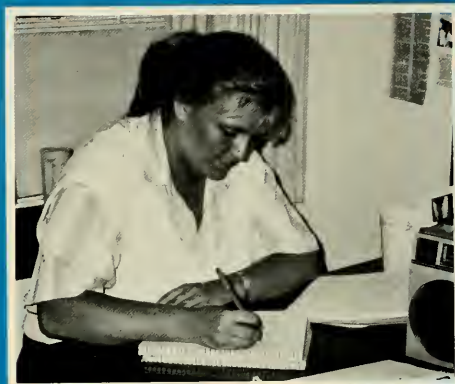

Our years at Florida Southern College are a part of the ongoing search. These years are marked not only by midterms, finals, and vacations, but also by our growth. Our education is not limited to classes and books, for we learn through doing, or at least trying. Seeing . . . reaching . . . touching . . . being: each is a vital part of the process. We find ourselves in a period of transition and college provides a chance to explore. Each day is a step toward fuller understanding.

Looking back over the year, the days fade into one another, and we are left with a college of memories. There were the times when we hurt so much that we knew we couldn't take another step. There were the moments of despair when it seemed that the world just didn't care, and we wondered why we bothered with it all. But we kept on and were encouraged by those days when everything went right, and we knew that we could conquer the world. Mostly, though, there were the in-between days, the routine days that tied it all together. With those days came a surge of strength when we realized that we had coped with everything.

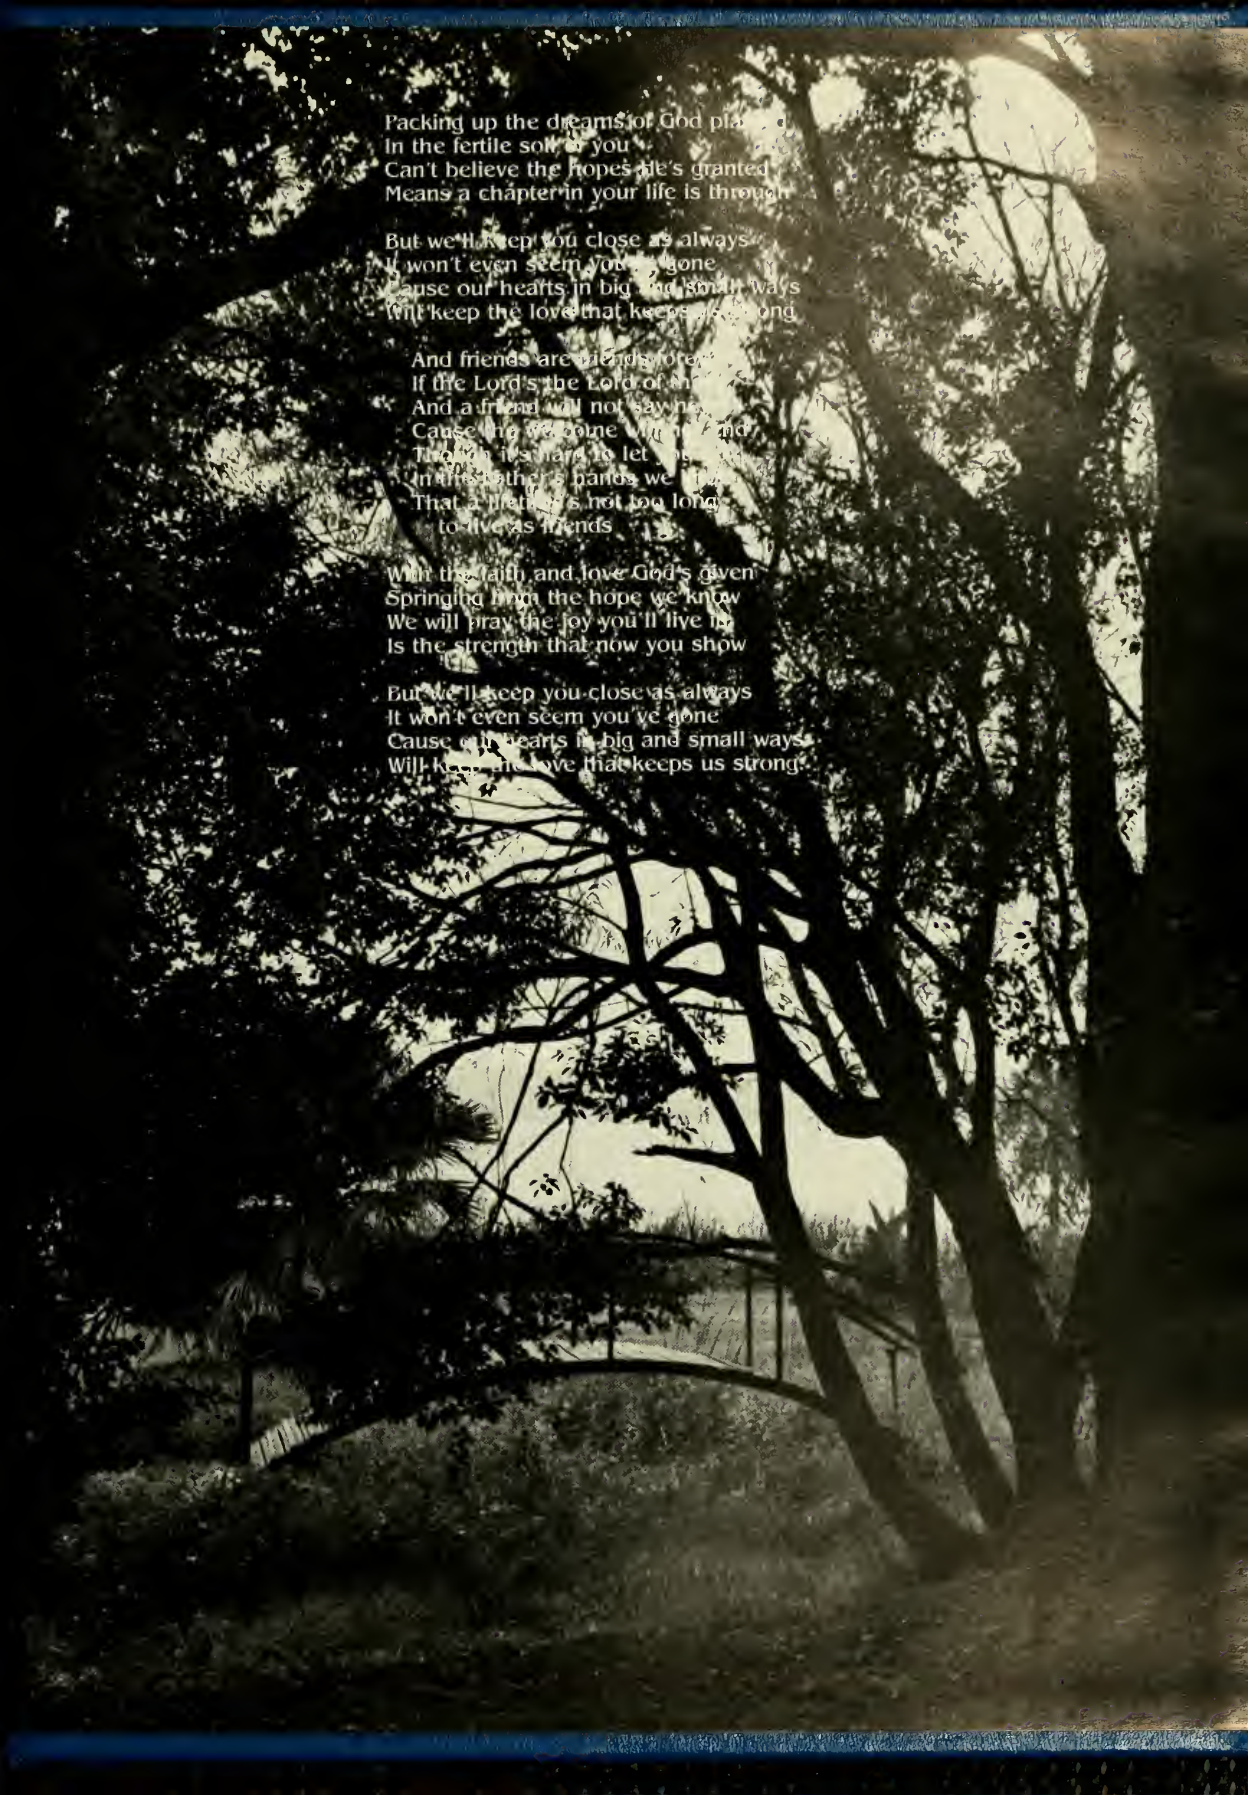

In remembering, we gain the satisfaction of at least partially having discovered who and what we are. We realize that there are untapped depths within us. We have traveled this far in our journey and are prepared to meet the next stage.

As we leave Southern, whether for the summer or for good, we take with us many memories. We will head off in different directions, but we will always carry with us the sense of community that is Florida Southern College. Primarily, though, we will take the knowledge that we have gained, and hopefully, we will have the ability to build from it.

Packing up the dreams of God planned
In the fertile soil of you
Can't believe the hopes He's granted
Means a chapter in your life is through

But we'll keep you close as always
It won't even seem you've gone
Cause our hearts in big and small ways
Will keep the love that keeps us strong

And friends are friends forever
If the Lord's the Lord of our lives
And a friend will not say no
Cause he's come with us and
Though it's hard to let us go
In these other's parts we'll stay
That a friend's not too long to live as friends

With the faith and love God's given
Springing from the hope we know
We will pray the joy you'll live in
Is the strength that now you show

But we'll keep you close as always
It won't even seem you've gone
Cause our hearts in big and small ways
Will keep the love that keeps us strong
